find fosters & volunteers, and help reduce shelter intake

About your presenter

- Chris Roy is a tech guy in his "day" job and used his experience to create Doobert.com which is an online software platform custom-built for animal rescuers.
- Doobert.com is the ONLY software that supports transport, fostering, case management, and video capturing all in one place.

Doobert is an online platform for animal rescue

5,000+ Organizations:

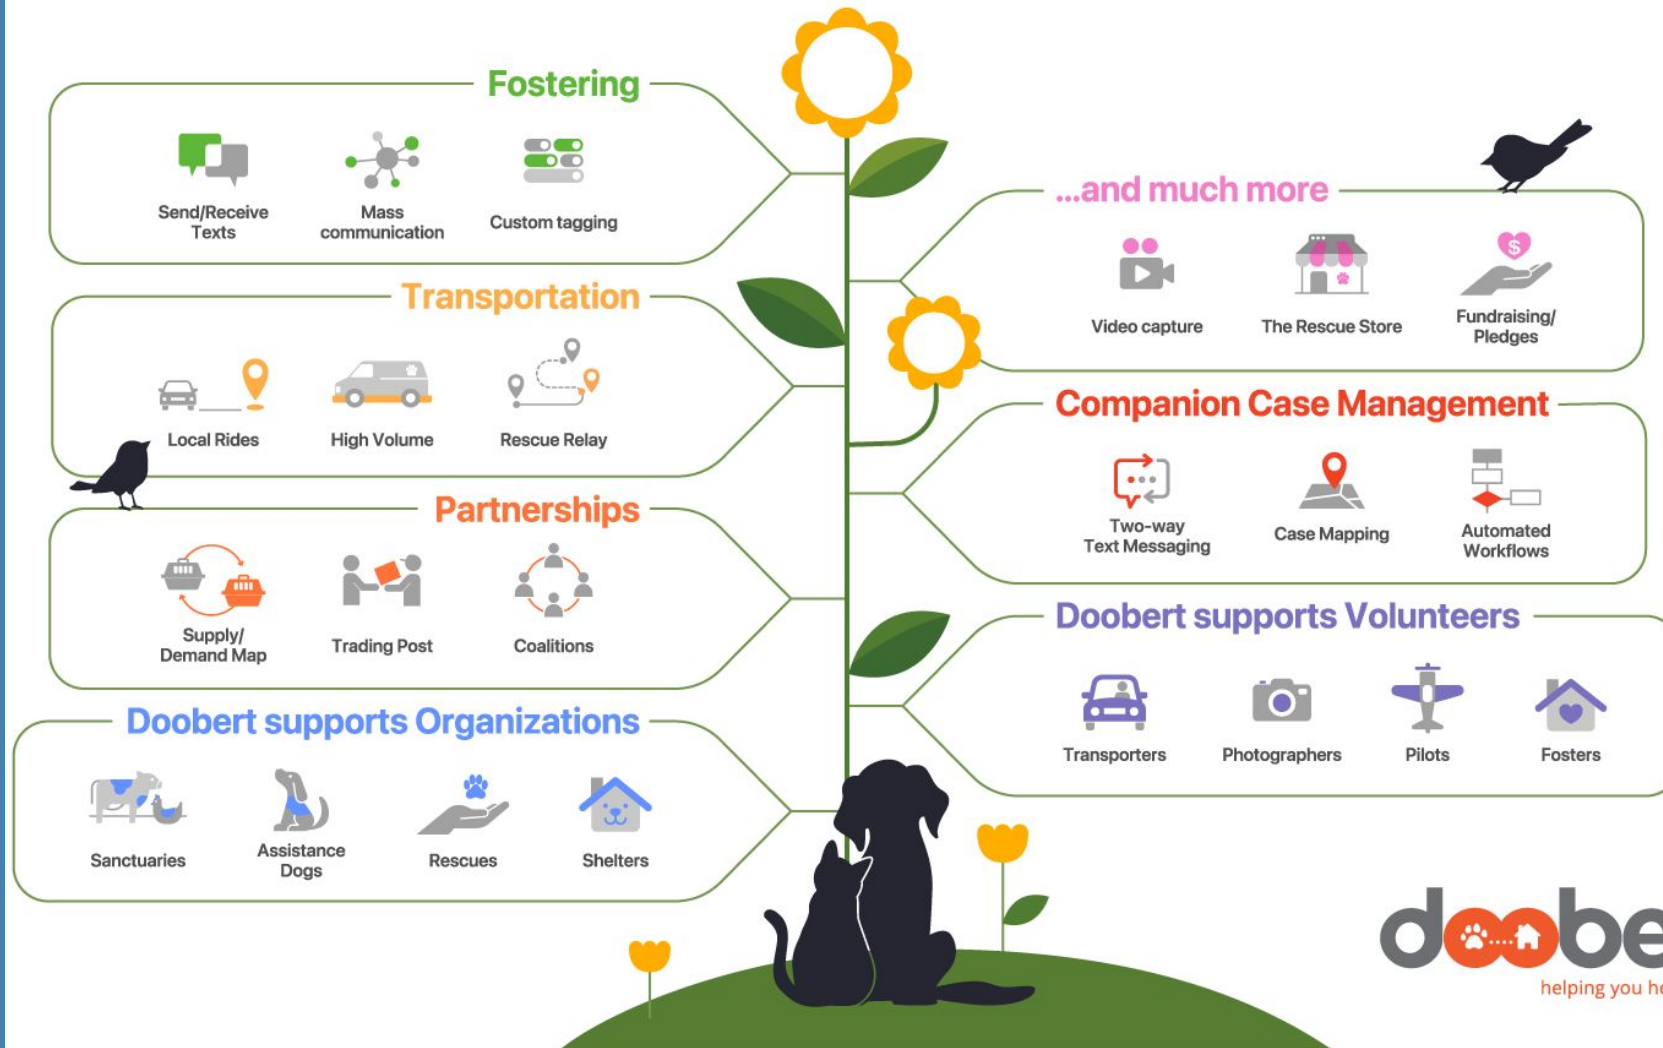

- Find Partners - source or destination organizations.
- Create volunteer transports - unlimited transports
- Promote animals - integration to Facebook
- Rescue together
 - share resources on the trading post
 - trigger alerts when new animals are posted
 - book a spot on existing transports.

35,000+ Volunteers:

- Volunteer their way - they choose how to volunteer: transporter, foster, even virtual volunteer.
- Engage on their level - e-mail, text messaging and even Facebook messenger notifications.
- Share their passion - share photos and stories from transport to inspire other volunteers to join.
- Power their community - using the Doobert mobile app they can even help find lost pets.

Doobert supports collaborative animal rescue!

What does Doobert do?

Did you know?

Doobert is also like Amazon Smile but on steroids!

We pay 5.0% (AS only paid 0.5%) of every order to the chosen rescue or shelter organization.

Tell your adopters to shop Doobert and designate your organization.

It's free to your org. and there are no catches or gimmicks or minimums, just real $$.

Fostering

Doobert loves fostering...

The screenshot shows the Fosterspace web application interface. The top navigation bar includes links for Transport, Animals, Partners, More, ARPA, RescueTUBE, and Fosterspace. The left sidebar contains a Dashboard menu and several action buttons: Announce, Invite, Getting Started, Invite to Doobert, Help, and Configure. The main content area is divided into four sections:

- Tickets: A summary card showing 0 Medical, 01 Supplies, and 0 Other tickets. Below is a table with columns for Foster Name, Animal Name, and Request Date.

Foster Name	Animal Name	Request Date
Doobert Org 1		05/19/2020
Chris Roy	Bella	06/04/2020
- Messages: A list of messages with a search bar. Two messages are shown: one from Chris Roy at 05:33PM and one from Rae Wondra at 04:00PM.
- Current Fosters: A table showing active fosters with columns for Foster Name, Animal Name, and Actions.

Foster Name	Animal Name	Actions
Chris Roy	Bella	[Icons]
Rae Wondra		[Icon]
- Recruit Fosters: A table showing potential fosterers with columns for Animal Name, Status, and Actions.

Animal Name	Status	Actions
Dog - Roxy	0 Applications	[Icons]
Dog - test 1	0 Applications	[Icons]

A "Help/Support" button is located at the bottom right of the interface.

Doobert automates everything...

Each transport has a unique sign-up page generated and managed by Doobert:

1. Organization branding & contacts:

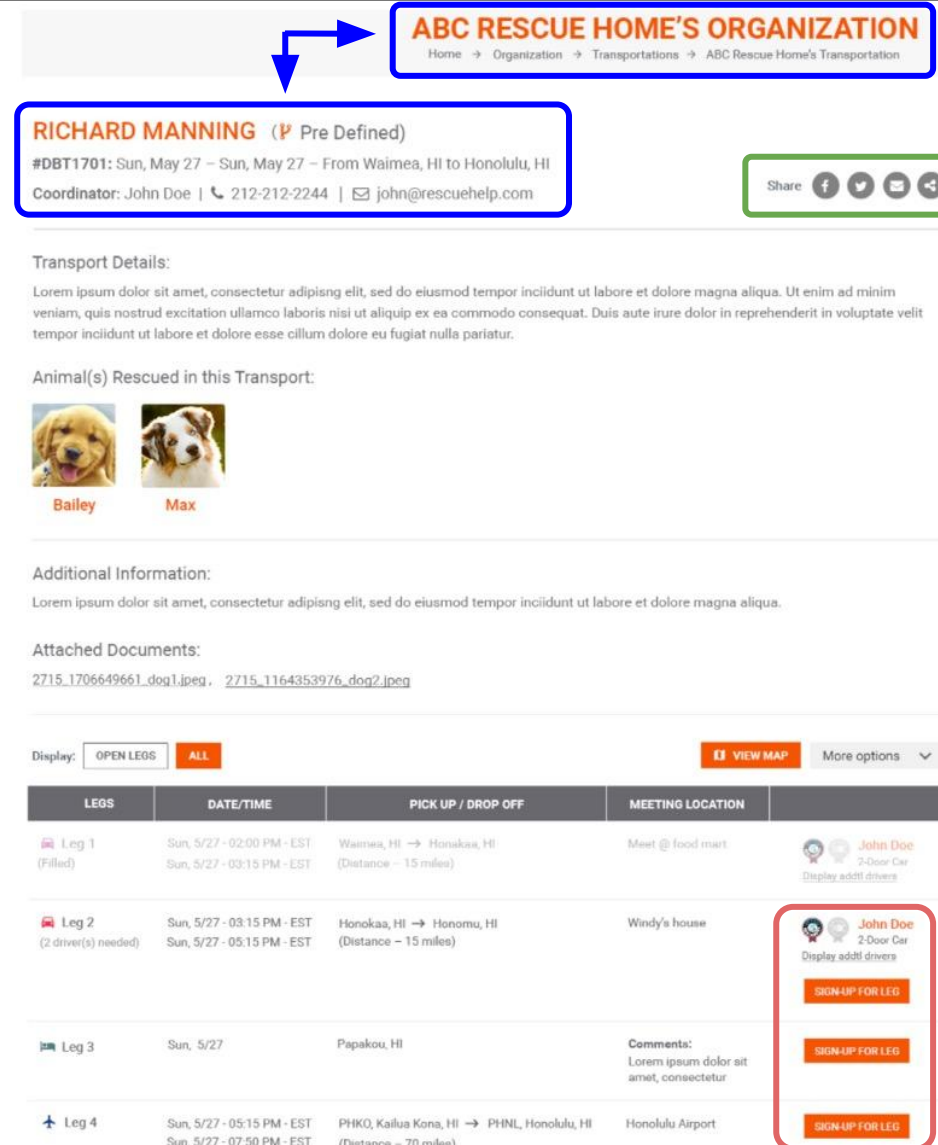

- The transport has their name on it and their contact info.

2. Quick share buttons:

- Doobert emails our volunteers automatically and even posts to FB for them.
- You can share and invite others

3. One click sign-up:

- Doobert manages the sign-ups and shows users which legs are still open and which are filled.

1. Create a bucket

Bucket #	Name / Description	Video Type	Files	Actions
600-a12	Adoption Videos	Adoption
600-a11	Fosters	Foster

2. Give the bucket number to people

The screenshot shows a confirmation screen titled 'YOU'VE ADDED A BUCKET!'. It displays the 'Bucket Number' as '600-a13'. A pink arrow points from the '2. Give the bucket number to people' text to the bucket number. Below the number, there's a message: 'Input the bucket number into the Doobert mobile app and start capturing video. The videos will be available for you to download and use instantly.' There's a checkbox for 'Don't show this again' and a 'CONTINUE' button.
